

Allée Bleue Black Series Old Vine Pinotage 2025

Allée Bleue is an historic estate in Franschhoek, owned by the Dauphin family. Framed by majestic mountains and pristine rivers, this beautiful farm produces fresh herbs, abundant fruit and exquisite fine wines.

Winemaking

Grapes were harvested, hand sorted, and crushed, followed by 4 days of cold soaking. After inoculation and regular punch downs, the grapes were pressed, and the must transferred. A 16-month maturation resulted in the five best barrels being selected for this release.

Winemaker's notes

All the berries are present: strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, and plums - wrapped in a layer of fine dark chocolate and offset with a touch of liquorice. The mouthfeel is soft and silky with just enough tannin. This wine will evolve and mature into something truly special.
